State Denies Bus Fare Raise

Interim Increase Refused by Public Utilities Comm.

Local commuters using Greyhound lines will not have to pay higher fares — at least for the present.

State Public Utilities Commission last Friday denied Greyhound's application for an "interim commute fare increase" for Central Contra Costa county and San Francisco peninsula points. Rates in Marin County were boosted 25 per cent.

Greyhound's application for rate increases remains before the commission and will be considered in the future.

The denial was only for "a temporary increase" until a decision has been rendered on the permanent raise, according to John McKirahan, secretary of the Contra Costa County Commuters Association.

"Our attorney, Spurgeon Avakian, deserves the credit for holding the line," McKirahan said. "He is doing a splendid job. He told us that the Utilities Commission notified Greyhound that the commuter rate case must be combined with their application for a statewide fare increase, which may mean that it will be a year or so before a decision will be reached."

Bus Service Worse Say Commuters; Call Meeting Here

Board of Directors of the Contra Costa County Commuters Association will meet Monday night at 7:30 at Acalanes High School to once again "try to get adequate Greyhound service on the presently overloaded buses," Secretary John McKirahan, said today.

McKirahan pointed out that the new bus that began operating August 11 was cancelled "abruptly and without warning" on August 22.

"Conditions have been worse ever since," he said. Orinda commuters are being forced to hitch hike for lack of buses. And the same thing happens every evening out of San Francisco, where the last bus at 5:50 is unable to pick up all the commuters at Second Street. These and other situations must be corrected and the first steps will be taken Monday night.

The public is invited to attend the directors' meeting.

Plans will also be made for the annual membership meeting and election of officers to be held the first week of October.

Woman Killed In Car Plunge

A 70-year-old Oakland woman was in serious condition at Permanente Hospital this week and her daughter was dead as the result of their car's plunging about 150 feet to the bottom of a canyon two and a half miles east of the Canyon store on the Redwood Canyon road.

According to the sheriff's office, the accident happened Sunday. The car and the women were found by the sheriff's deputies following a search in the area west of Moraga.

Dead was Mae Downing, 44. Suffering from a broken shoulder, severe shock and exposure and a minor leg wound was her mother, Mrs. Margaret Dolan, 70.

Mrs. Robert Price of 19 Via Hermosa returned a week ago Thursday from Meacham, Oregon, with her husband who was injured August 6 in a dynamite blast.

Mr. Price is part owner of the Pacific Pipe Line and Engineers, which at the time of the accident was laying a pipe line for the Standard Oil Co. near a point where railroad work under a trestle was going on.

A loosened rock fell about 15 feet into a box of dynamite caps and caused the explosion. Mr. Price and three of his men were blown 20 feet. Miraculously no one was killed.

Mr. Price suffered injuries to his right eye, ear, and right side of his body, but he was sufficiently recovered to return to his office Tuesday.

In addition to several special events, Ickes won the championship match with a score of 237 out of a possible 250.

The match was very closely contested with three shooters trailing the winner by only one point.

Ranked on the basis of the highest score at long range, second place went to Texas State Champion Jack Moore with 236 out of 250, third to John Harness of California with an identical score, and fourth to Clovis Bull of Nevada, who also had 236.

The 12-15 Club had a delightful luncheon and card party August 29 at the home of Mrs. George Hickok.

About 50 members and guests enjoyed the affair, the first of a series of parties to be given through the fall and winter to raise funds for the club's philanthropic projects. The next party will be held at the home of Mrs. Leo Alexander.

The club will hold a business meeting Tuesday at the home of Mrs. John F. Lax, 19 Mira Loma Road.

Train Hits Car— No One Injured!

Mr. and Mrs. Willard E. Patton and their two daughters, Christine, 2, and Susanne, eight months, luckily escaped injury last Friday when their car was knocked 55 feet into a parking lot by a Southern Pacific train at a Belmont grade crossing.

The Pattons were on their way to Southern California for a vacation when the accident occurred.

MAYBE THOSE SMILES are due to plans for a car pool being discussed by David Long (at right), former Acalanes High School track star, and Ray Johnson, administrative assistant to Director Leland L. Medsker of Contra Costa Junior College's East Campus. Long, one of the students from this area who intend to study at East Campus this fall, asks that any other prospective East Campus students from Lafayette or Orinda get in touch with him by phoning him at Lafayette 3861.

$130,000 Fire Bond Issue Election Tentatively Scheduled for Nov. 21st

Orinda fire commissioners agreed to call an election to consider a $130,000 bond issue to finance the building of another firehouse in a special meeting held last Thursday night in the Orinda Fire House.

The election has been tentatively set for November 21.

NECESSITY EXPLAINED

The special meeting was called to consider the proposed bond issue and to explain its necessity to representatives of community organizations.

At the meeting were representatives of the Orinda Association, the Orinda Chamber of Commerce and various improvement groups. According to the plan approved by the commissioners, if the issue is accepted by the voters, only $75,000 of the bonds will be issued immediately. This money will be used to finance the construction of a second fire house at Moraga Highway and Orchard Road and to purchase land in the Sleepy Hollow area for the eventual construction of a third fire house.

It has been pointed out that the erection of another fire house will probably mean a reduction of 9 per cent in the fire insurance rates. A third fire house would cut the present rate 19 per cent.

Freak Derailing Caused by Heat

A freak occurrence believed due to the intense heat caused derailment of nine cars of a Sacramento Northern Railway freight train west of Moraga Saturday.

Spreading rails caused by the exceptionally high temperature were thought to have caused derailment of the Oakland-bound train, according to Brakeman Walter Koch.

The cars did not leave the roadbed, their wheels carrying them down the right of way until the 20-car train could be brought to a halt.

A patch of grass near the roadway was ignited by sparks from the wheels of the cars as they bumped over the ties, but the fire was put out by crewmen and Moraga Fire Department.

The items to be moved include a safe and other postoffice equipment.

Match-Playing Kids Start Wide El Toyonal Fire

Three boys ranging in age from 7 to 10 played with matches last weekend—and set off a two-square-mile brush fire in the hilly El Toyonal section above Orinda Village.

Fire-fighters from the Orinda and Moraga fire departments and the East Bay Municipal Utility District battled the blaze, which threatened a number of homes, for several hours, while the Lafayette fire department stood by at the Orinda fire station.

AREA PATROLLED

Although the fire was brought under control five or six hours after it was first noticed by residents at 5:30 p.m. Saturday, it was still being fought by the Orinda department Sunday, when Lafayette firemen again stood by, and patrolling of the area, to make sure that the blaze was completely extinguished, continued through Monday.

The youngsters who started the fire by playing with matches were found, according to Inspector W. Koch of the Orinda fire department, who said that discussions have been held with the boys and their parents.

WARNED

"We had the boys and their parents at the station, explained the seriousness of the situation to them and warned that in the future parents will be held strictly responsible," said Koch, who investigated the fire.

Orinda Fire Chief H. E. Wyatt had his eight regular men and about 20 volunteers battling the menacing fire, with all five pieces of equipment being used. Aiding them were some 12 or 14 men from the E.B.M.U.D. and their power wagon, and two men from the Moraga department, including Chief Al Baitz, and Moraga's one piece of equipment.

TOMES BLACKENED

Smoke blackened portions of the homes of Robert McGill, 240 El Toyonal Road, and John Almond, 263 El Toyonal Road.

Residents of the area, attracted by the smoke and flames, helped in fighting the fire. Hundreds gathered to watch and assist.

OUT OF CONTROL

For a tense 20-minute period the flames swept out of control, leaping through the dry grass and scorching the rear of the McGill residence.

While Mrs. McGill chopped at burning bushes and twigs with a hoe, McGill manned garden hoses. Their two small children were at home at the time.

NEIGHBORS AID

Mr. and Mrs. Almond, who live above the McGills, fought the flames away from a small garage, with the help of their three young sons and their neighbors, Dave and Betty Coleman of 8 Camino Diablo.

This fire was the only one reported to the Orinda fire department for the past week in the district, and was the first fire call for the department in several weeks.

Condemnation proceedings against 100 acres bounded by the Contra Costa Golf Club road and Walnut Creek have been filed in Superior Court on behalf of the Contra Costa Junior College District.

The suit, filed Tuesday, named as defendants Fred Boradori, Stanley Roche and Woodrow Roche. The action was filed by Deputy District Attorney C. C. Hemmings.

Court action follows collapse of months of negotiations between the college district and the Roche family, in the district's quest for a permanent East Campus site.

As a result of their discussions, letters were written to Sheriff Long, disaster relief head of the county, and to County Superintendent of Schools B. O. Building Memo--

Buildings under construction are NOT playgrounds, Inspector Norman Wilson of the sheriff's office warned this week.

Wilson's warning, directed to juveniles and their parents, was made as he commented on windup of investigation of a bit of high-jinks at a new six-unit apartment house when it was being built a few months ago. At that time juveniles ripped out all the copper tubing in the structure, located on Stuart Street in Lafayette.

F. R. Bazinett of Martinez, owner and builder, estimated the loss at about $100 in value.

According to Inspector Wilson, the guilty juveniles were all found and sternly reprimanded, and their parents made restitution.

Let's Not Wait for Disaster - Let's Act Now

(An Editorial)

Last week residents of the community attended a meeting to hear the county's disaster preparedness plans. When the meeting was concluded, most of the people expressed themselves as "disturbed."

Chairman of the Contra Costa County Disaster Council, James Long, discussed a five-phase program which covered law enforcement agencies, fire departments, public utilities, medical service and Red Cross. He explained that a detailed program has not yet been released by state and federal governments. Further detailed action awaits this program.

But what surprised those who had been asked to attend the meeting by the disaster chairman was that nowhere in present plans is there any specific provision for local action. At our meeting, as well as at meetings in other unincorporated areas, Sheriff Long was questioned why nothing is being set up on the local level.

As one person remarked, "Apparently we were called here to learn that there is nothing for us to do."

We believe that criticism of the county plan at its present stage is justified.

We see no need for a complicated, block-by-block organization, with wardens, committees and echelons of administration. We agree with Sheriff Long that hysteria must be avoided. We realize that comprehensive planning and organization will follow patterns established by state and federal governments.

But there is no reason why the first organizational steps — which are often the most difficult — should not be taken now.

Paraphrasing New York Governor Dewey (who was asked by the federal government to take no civilian defense action until their plans were released), we ask, "Can the County Disaster Council assure us that there will be no bombings until we are prepared for them?"

If a major disaster occurred tomorrow, there is no linking group between the county and residents of the community. There is no organization... no coordination... no method to instruct us in what to do.

At present our greatest need is for coordination between the disaster relief groups and the people. All that is required is a local person to serve as a coordinator — with perhaps a two-man committee to aid him.

Logically, this group should be established within the framework of the Orinda Association. Orinda is fortunate in having such an able, well-organized group to do this task.

This committee can study our purely local problems, work with existing disaster relief groups and, most important, be prepared to expand when over-all plans become available.

All incorporated cities — large and small — are doing this; Walnut Creek, for example. Our need is not less because we are not incorporated. Actually, the need is greater because we do not have existing city organizations.

We recommend that our community immediately take steps to establish a coordinating committee. And we believe that a smooth-functioning committee will be welcomed by the County Disaster Council.

This situation is just one more example where the people are far ahead of their government. We cannot criticize our county too severely for lack of plans. The county has not been told what to do. The state is working on plans. And the major preparedness program depends on the federal government — this plan is "somewhere in Washington."

But why wait? We can take the initiative and do something for ourselves.

Go slow-let 'em grow!

Youngsters at play often forget to look out for cars. But you can't afford to forget to look out for youngsters. When you drive near schools, playgrounds or residential districts, remember to slow up so you can stop in time to let 'em grow up.

Be Careful—the child you save may be your own!

Letters to the Editor

Dear Sir:

During the present conflict of ideologies we hear our neighbors constantly referring in lofty terms to democracy. On September 18 we shall have an opportunity to see whether our neighbors mean what they say or whether they are merely speaking for other people's consumption.

The actual working of democracy will be tested on September 18, as it is on that date when the residents of this area will have an opportunity to select two of the directors of the local Sanitary District.

In our discussion of democracy we refer to the obligations of the citizen to vote in elections and often stop at that point. This does not go far enough. The obligation is to cast the ballot for the right man as well as merely voting. If one does not know for whom he is voting or the issues at stake, it is my belief that democracy is better served by not having that individual cast a ballot.

We are fortunate in having such fine candidates offering their services to the community. It is especially gratifying when we consider that the position pays no salary. Two of the five candidates are to be selected to serve us.

It is interesting to note that both incumbents (Elliott Johnson and Neill Cornwall), who are standing for reelection, are residents of Lafayette.

Mr. Cornwall is the most recent addition to the Sanitary District Board. While we all admire him, it is difficult at this early date to measure just how much he has contributed to the welfare of the District.

Attention should be called to the fact that Elliott Johnson was one of the original members of the Board of Central Contra Costa Sanitary District. He has helped the district through its most trying days.

Now that the sewer system is substantially completed and the burden on the directors has been correspondingly reduced, it seems to me that we should encourage Mr. Johnson to continue on the board. He has served us diligently, honestly and well. He has earned our vote of confidence. Let us deliver this vote on September 18.

Captain Sandford Sez:

RECENTLY WHILE DRIVING along Oakland Street toward Mt. Diablo Boulevard I slowed down and stopped in order to permit a beautiful Scotch terrier to cross in front of me. This dog was slowly but deliberately and definitely crossing the road.

The driver behind me, a lady in a station wagon, was vigorously blasting her horn, which evidently meant that I was supposed to run over the dog in order to permit her royal highness to proceed.

I wish to state that I am definitely not running over any dogs for any reason whatsoever.

CONDITIONS ON MANIAC'S BOULEVARD become more intolerable every day.

A state highway officer once told me, "Cap, you are king in the pedestrian way." However, it seems to be an established custom of the motorist to dash madly at the poor pedestrian endeavoring to substantiate that theory, and when one car shows courtesy to the pedestrian by slowing up or stopping, the next car will pass at 60 or 70 miles per hour, which is illegal and asinine, and could, in my judgment, be classified as "with murderous intent."

IN REGARD TO THE SAN FRANCISCO towaway law: I have never had my car towed away and probably (I hope) never will. Think, if you will, of the reactions of some visitor or tourist to San Francisco, returning to find his car gone.

Or if you wish to stretch your imagination a little, think of one of the San Francisco pioneers coming out of the Palace Hotel to find that his carriage and pair had been removed and placed on a vacant lot; and when he finally located it he was informed that it would cost him $6 to repossess same.

Well, listen, buddy, you've guessed it right and so did I. I can hear the bark of the revolver shot that would wind up that episode permanently.

Therapy Center Activity on Increase

Mount Diablo Child Therapy Center continues its remarkable growth in spite of its cramped quarters.

About a year ago the staff started work in their tiny Lafayette quarters with 19 polio patients. They are now treating about 50 patients. Approximately 20 of these have been crippled by other things than polio, such as fractures, dislocations, amputations and industrial accidents of various kinds.

MISS BARBARA KNAPP, aided by volunteer workers, is carrying on the therapy work while Mrs. Mary Doyle is on vacation. Some of this work is being done in the yard during the summer months.

Dick Berger, one of the patients, has lent the center his air-conditioner, which is one of many examples of the good feeling and co-operation between patients and the staff.

LOOMS DONATED
The Craft Shop in Lafayette has recently donated two four-harness floor looms: Dale King and Susan Campbell of the Craft Shop do all the shopping for the occupational therapy, thus saving the staff valuable time as well as money.

Martinez Merry-Go-Round Planners Study Industry's Proposals; Patrol Cars Prowl for Game Violators

If you can stand the mere mention of anything relative to smokestacks or factories on these hot days (at least they're hot up to the time of this writing), you might be interested in the following:

After the second public hearing before the County Planning Commission last week, the matter of possible amendment of Ordinance 382, to ban or restrict housing development in industrially zoned areas, is under careful study by the commission.

At the second hearing industry representatives, naturally, proposed certain amendments, which were taken under advisement by the commission. According to Tom Heaton, planning technician, the planners intend to "go thoroughly into it," so as to make no mistakes in any action they may recommend to the supervisors.

GAME VIOLATORS
Sheriff's patrol cars are on the lookout for hunters violating game laws during deer-hunting season.

According to Inspector Norman Wilson, complaint has been received of spotlights being used in the Alhambra Valley area and of two hunters in the Danville area shooting from their auto, and ranchers have expressed concern over hunters trespassing on their property.

Hunters operating on private property can be prosecuted for vagrancy, Wilson warned.

LOW-RENT UNITS
Being requested of the Board of Supervisors by Contra Costa County Housing Authority commissioners is permission to apply for 750 low-rent family units.

The 750 units being sought include 250 already O.K.'d by the U. S. Public Housing Authority, according to Geould Gill, chairman of the housing authority. Minimum need of 1,829 low-rent housing units in North Richmond, Pittsburg, Antioch, Martinez, San Pablo, Rodeo and Crockett is cited in a 240-page report filed with the authority recently by Dan E. Clark and Associates of San Francisco.

J. C. CATALOG
With registration set for next Monday and with classes scheduled to start September 18, Contra Costa Junior College is just about ready for the 1950-51 school year. The college's attractive 79-page catalog is packed with essential information on curriculum, special services, administration personnel and faculty, and contains interesting photographs.

Most fascinating and refreshing detail in the catalog, to a sweltering reader during recent torrid days, is the inviting photo of the East Campus swimming pool, on page 17.

RELIEF CASES
Study of 1,100 cases of county aid to needy children and 3,400 cases of old-age relief is recommended by William J. Golden, county social service director.

In proposing such an investigation to the Board of Supervisors, Golden, conferring with the board, three Superior Court judges and District Attorney Francis W. Collins, pointed out that the 1,100 children's aid cases should be probed to find out why responsible fathers are not contributing to support of their children. These 1,100 cases are almost 50 per cent of the 2,243 needy children's cases now on the county books.

Regarding the old-age relief cases, Golden asks study of the application of the "responsible rela-

Over 100 Dons Turn Out for Grid Practice as Coaches Start Weeding

TURNOUT AT ACALANES High School is well past the hundred mark, and competition for spots on both varsity and junior varsity is extremely keen.

Coaches are scratching their heads in an attempt to fit each candidate into the proper slot. Scrimmage set for the near future will no doubt result in many changes from first guesses. I have yet to see a first-week eleven remain that way very long.

ONE VERY encouraging factor at Acalanes has been the large turnout of Frosh.

Too often Frosh feel that they can't make the team, and put off until their sophomore, junior or senior year. In the meantime much valuable experience is lost.

Another important factor is the development of a sense for game situations, which can only be gained through experience. Such instinct tells one what to do under varying situations.

The group of Frosh this year is larger than usual and appears to have better than average physical attributes.

KEN JONES, Orlando Chiavini

and Lawrence Lucas are candidates for the Contra Costa Junior College football team. It's reported they are undergoing some stiff workouts under the guiding hand of Jack Danilovich.

The three should give a good account of themselves and appear to be headed for a good share of duty on the Junior College's first eleven.

J.C. Has Promising Football Roster

Obviously pleased at the "very satisfactory" turnout for pre-registration football at Contra Costa Junior College West Campus, Gene Corr, athletic coordinator, announced that 60 men had been signed during the first three-day period.

Jack Danilovich, head coach at West Campus, said: "We ought to have a good, heavy line."

Assistant Coach Hugo Boschetti, who will probably spend most of his time with the backfield, was equally pleased with the material in that department.

PRELIMINARY ROSTER

Following is the preliminary roster as of the end of the three-day preliminary sign-up:

From Alameda High School: Joe Burgenski; Albany High School: Dick Young; Antioch High School: Walt Charette; Berkeley: Robert Silver, Jerry Vind, Loy Bise (St. Mary's), Bernard Brown, Dean Wise, Alvin Muldrow and J. Long; Brentwood: Mel Pederson.

FROM LAFAYETTE

From Lafayette: Sam Slauson, Orlando Chiavini, Ken Jones, Lawrence Lucas.

Oakland: John Viskovich, Eddie Yarbough (McClymonds), Julian Burks (Technical); Pittsburg: Jack Gray, Sal Cardinale, Ray Bruno, Ed Bokinskie, Tom Hendricks and Joe DiMercurio.

Fast Pace Is Set By Landing Strip In Softball Play

The outstripping Strippers—that's what the fans were calling the hard-hitting, fast-playing Landing Strip softball team the beginning of this week.

Reason for the monicker was that the Strippers' nine of Lafayette had recently plunged through four consecutive victories in the second half of league play at Walnut Creek City Park, placing them in the undefeated category for the season's second half.

7-4 VICTORY

Although the Della Pipa team outthit them (9 hits as against 8) the Landing Strip boys emerged top-side in a 7-4 contest recently. Dunham, the Strip pitcher, struck out 12. Left fielder Duncan and Second baseman Lientz each hit a Stripper home run, and Right fielder Lytle got two hits in his three times at bat.

Score by innings was:
Landing Strip . . . 400 000 3-7
Della Pipa . . . 000 210 1-4

DEFEAT SUN VALLEY

In an earlier contest, Landing Strip defeated the Sun Valley Saints, 7-3. A homer by Ed Bill, Stripper first baseman, and Sun Valley errors aided in this victory.

Following this defeat, the Saints were leading the American Legion 6 to 5 after four innings, but in the beginning of the fifth the Legion tied the score. An argument with the umpire ensued, and the Saints walked off the field, forfeiting the game to the Legion.

Antioch Likely To Be a Top Contender For County High School Grid Honors

By COACH ERWIN MATTSON

ANTIOCH HIGH, as always, appears to be a definite threat for top honors in the Contra Costa high school gridiron race.

For the first time in a decade Jack Danilovich will not be at the helm, having been promoted to the Junior College ranks. Jack's record has been an enviable one, with losses few and far between.

Antioch's grid destinies have been turned over to a newcomer, Bud Abbott.

IN THE PAST Antioch has featured the double wing and massed interference. The grapevine has it that Coach Abbott will install the T. On paper he has a veteran and potent backfield in Jim Dossey, Tommy Lynn, Gerald Comstock and Don Noack.

The same players comprised last year's backfield. ANTIOCH'S LINE, like lines of most other county elevens, will be new hands largely recruited from the Junior Varsity ranks.

Antioch is a team that is always dangerous, and team spirit is terrific, which has resulted in the county's most imposing record in the win column.

The team appears to have more than its share of speed and it seems it will be among top contenders.

IT WILL BE interesting to see how they will react to the T after a decade of double wing.

Next week I will review Diablo, which appears to . . . well, all about that next week.

Football, like recent weather, gets hotter as mid-September approaches.

Joe Fan is rapidly nearing the fever stage as dates of opening games draw closer.

STEPPED UP

Practices are being stepped up in order to find out about player reaction as to a little "rock 'em" and "sock 'em."

Many a halfback looks like an All-American as he totes the pigskin under his arm with no tacklers obstructing his path.

COME THE TACKLES

But the real story is told when the guards, tackles and line-backers who are trying to make that first eleven give their all in tackling the backs.

The period of heat which has coincided with the opening of practice sessions has been hard on players in many respects, but has kept early practice bumps and bruises to a minimum. Warm weather keeps the muscles loose, and there is less chance for injury.

WARMING UP

One of the most important things for any athlete to learn is to warm up properly before any strenuous physical exertion.

Calisthenics are a "must" at opening of practice sessions so as to be sure that each individual is properly warmed up.

Another reason for calisthenics is to provide exercises which will condition muscles through stretching and contracting drills.

Excessive speed on the highway is a major cause of traffic fatalities, says the California State Automobile Association.

Care Advised by W.C. Chamber on Homes Contracts

A warning to home owners to use care in contracting with unknown firms for home improvements has been issued by the Walnut Creek Area Chamber of Commerce.

Several cases have come to the attention of the chamber in recent months in which some firms tell a potential customer that an improvement job will be used as a model in making subsequent sales and that a commission will be paid on any such sales made.

This promise normally is not written into any contract and the home owner has difficulty in proving that any sales were made as a direct result of the improvement job on his own home.

The Chamber of Commerce has been informed by the Oakland Better Business Bureau that it is strictly against its policy to grant permission to use the name of the BBB as a reference.

Residents run less risk of receiving unsatisfactory service by dealing with locally owned reliable firms, the chamber pointed out. In case of doubt, home owners are urged to telephone the Chamber of Commerce, Walnut Creek 2000.

Fire Department Will Perform at Westival on 30th

The Lafayette Fire Department is playing two roles in the extravaganza known as the Westival which Lafayette PTA is staging September 30.

At 9 that night on the Lafayette Grammar School grounds, gigantic flames will lick the air, and as billows of black smoke spiral skywards a call goes through to the fire department!

INTO ACTION

Bells ring—sirens shriek—wheels grind the pavement—and brakes clash—as the men and up-to-the-minute equipment of Lafayette's crack company swing into action!

You'll see it all—from the hose being laid from the hydrant—to the last spark! Just to make it twice as interesting there'll be two demonstrations—the first a bottled gas fire which is truly spectacular, and the second of oil with stacks of rubber tires, which we are told makes for a tremendous fire.

According to Chief Shirley Peakes, "This demonstration should satisfy the pyromania urge in a good many people."

MODEL-T

Earlier in the day the fire department's famous old Model-T Ford engine, which has seen better days, will be resurrected for the special delight of all those boys and girls who have gazed wistfully at fire-bound engines and have wished that someday—somehow—they might get to ride on one.

Chief Peakes is supplying the engine and a fresh driver every hour from his regular force of 11 men and 17 volunteers, and the Dads Club is expected to recruit an "end man" (you know—the one who holds on by one arm) for every half-hour. For, according to the chief, "No man can stand the rattle and jarring from that baby for any longer period."

8 ON EACH TOUR

Eight passengers will be carried on each tour of School Street to Moraga Boulevard, to Moraga Road and back to the school auditorium.

This Model-T engine was retired in 1942 after 21 years of faithful duty, and like any famous race horse is allowed to graze in the pasture (of the Fire House) for the rest of her days.

Whittakers Vacation 2 Weeks at Mendocino

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Austin Whittaker with two of their three children, Bobby and Christie, vacationed for two weeks at Mendocino. Brad Whittaker was cared for by his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Whittaker who have been Lafayette residents for over 30 years.

Underwoods Back from Goose Ranch Vacation

The Ramsay Underwoods of Happy Valley Road returned recently from a three weeks' vacation at Goose Ranch, near Burney, Calif. They were accompanied by their daughters, Sandy and Vicky, and by Mr. Underwood's parents, Capt and Mrs. H. W. Underwood of Alameda.

Pat and Joan Now Working in Oakland

Two recent graduates of Aca-lanes High School, Pat Ellerd and Joan Conner, are now working at The Gray Shop in Oakland. In February, Pat plans to enter the College of Arts and Crafts in Oakland.

What Lafayette People are Doing

Three Couples Spend 10 Days Sierra Camping

Recently returning from a camping trip near Weber Lake in the High Sierra are the William Lindbergs, the Gene Harters and the Irving Juliuses. Each couple drove their own car as far into the mountain wilderness as possible, then all three cars were parked, and the couples continued in one truck.

The three couples were gone for 10 days, a wonderful time being enjoyed by all even though they spent 10 nights in sleeping bags on the ground. They packed in all their food for their stay, but this supply was decidedly augmented by a large daily catch of fish. Even the girls fished, although it was quite a new experience for them (especially fly-casting).

One day was spent trolling in a nearby lake. It was at this time that the biggest trout, a German Brown, was caught by Lindberg. It measured 27 inches.

Learners Again Travel to Hawaii

For the second time this year, Mrs. Paul W. Learner and daughters Terryann and Linda Sue joined Mr. Learner in a trip to the Hawaiian Islands.

The family left on the 23rd of July and returned recently, after spending most of their time on the beach, except for a trip to Kona, on the main island, Hawaii.

Learner, who has been to the Islands four times himself, is head of the Learner Company of Alameda and has an office in Hawaii.

Wm. Young Family Has Buck's Lake Vacation

Among the recent St. Mary's Estates vacationers have been Mr. and Mrs. William Young and their children Karen and Richard, who spent an enjoyable 10 days at Buck's Lake.

Inskips, Daughter Are Home After Trip

Mr. and Mrs. George Inskip and daughter Susan, residents of St. Mary's Estates, have just returned from two weeks' visiting friends at Twain Hart and Mr. Inskip's father in Arcata, Calif.

Peglow's Fly and Drive Over U.S.

A six weeks' trip across the United States by plane and car was the highlight of the summer for Mr. and Mrs. Fred Peglow of Sunset Village.

The Peglows flew to Detroit, where they picked up a new car. From Detroit their journey took them to Niagara, the New England states, New York City, Washington, D.C., into the Southern states and then westward.

W.S.C.S. Officers To Meet Monday

Program for the coming year will be planned and discussed by the officers of the Women's Society of Christian Service of Lafayette Community Church next Monday.

The meeting will be held at 2 p.m. in the lounge of the church. In view of the importance of the discussion, all W.S.C.S. officers are urged to attend.

Coles Hosts at Evening Barbecue

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey L. Cole have returned home from Carmel.

Following a recent dessert and swim party for Mrs. Jack Seely (Diane Tilton) given by Mrs. Cole and Mrs. Delwyn Elfers, Mr. and Mrs. Cole were hosts at an evening barbecue for friends including Messrs. and Mesdames Elmer E. Tilton, Clarence F. Brown, W. K. van Bokkelen and Howard Fred-erick.

Pleau Given New 20-30's Charter

In ceremonies at the El Nido recently, members of the new Walnut Creek 20-30 Club were installed and Gene Pleau of Lafayette, club president, received the charter from Merv Willoughby of San Jose, trustee of the international organization.

Some 250 Bay Area 20-30 members attended the affair. In charge was the Richmond 20-30 Club, with its president, Lee Williams, acting as master of ceremonies.

Franklins and Sons Back from Yosemite

After several pleasant days spent in Yosemite, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Franklin and their two sons Bobby and Jeff have returned to their home on St. Mary's Road.

Mrs. Pollaczek's Brother Visiting From Formosa

Stanley Mott-Smith of Honolulu, for the past three years a resident of Taipei, Formosa, arrived at the home of his sister, Mrs. Paul Pollaczek on Rustic Way last week.

Mott-Smith is on leave of absence from his position as the last of six American engineers sent to Formosa as a joint enterprise of the U. S. and Chinese government to rehabilitate the sugar and pineapple industry on the island.

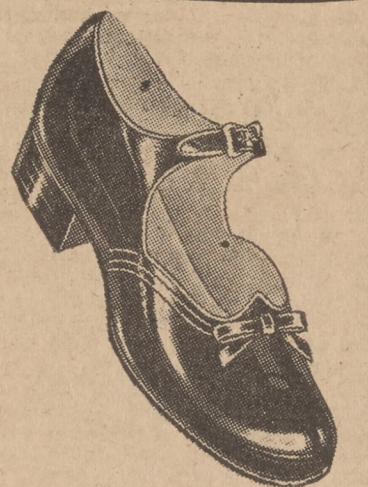

The sugar project was completed just as the Chinese communists took over, leaving the export market of this commodity in a poor position. The Korean war and the resulting concentration of men in that area, however, has straightened out that situation, according to Mott-Smith.

He will leave shortly for Seattle, Honolulu, Tokyo and thence back to Formosa.

If you love children — yours and your neighbors, slow down when you drive home today.

Here and There in Orinda

East Bay Troth Told to Guests At Orinda Party

Mrs. C. C. de Witt (Gail Grigg) and Gloria Grigg, were hostesses at a cocktail party and buffet supper at the former's La Cuesta Road home last week, the highlight of the occasion being announcement of the engagement of Marilyn Branscheid of Alameda and Carl A. Pedersen of Berkeley.

The bride-elect, daughter of Mayor and Mrs. Winthrop J. Branscheid of Alameda, was graduated from the Anna Head School in Berkeley and from the University of California, where she was a Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority member. "Bud," as the benedict-elect is known, is son of Mrs. Kate G. Pedersen of Berkeley and the late Lars Pedersen.

Ralph Wilsons on 10,000 Mile Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wilson returned August 26 from a six-weeks' trip east which covered 10,000 miles of motoring, seeing national landmarks and visiting relatives and old friends.

In Yellowstone Park Ralph took a number of fine pictures. They visited their son Perry and family for three weeks at their home on the Jamestown College campus, North Dakota.

The next trip highlight was a three-day visit at the modern dairy ranch of the E. J. Fowlers on the shores of Lake Winnebago. The Fowlers said they would spend the coming winter in Orinda as has been their custom for some years both because they like Orinda's winter climate and so as to be near their son, E. J., Jr.

HISTORIC SIGHTS

A ferry trip across Lake Michigan, a drive on to Quebec and a week in Maine followed. They were thrilled with the scenic beauty of the White Mountains and with the historic significance of scenes in Boston, Plymouth, Valley Forge and Gettysburg.

Three days in New York were all too short to take in all the sights of that great city. The drive through Baltimore, Annapolis, Mt. Vernon, Washington, Jamestown and Yorktown was like turning the leaves of an illustrated history book of America.

VISITS EARLY HOME

In Wooster, Ohio, they visited Ruth's early home.

In summarizing their trip the Wilsons said they learned more than ever to be immensely proud of their country, its beginnings and achievements, and felt its need to be loved and defended.

Sunday School Begins at 9:30

It's Sunday school at 9:30 and church at 11 again Sunday at Orinda Community Church as the schedule changes from summer to school-year hours.

A record enrollment is expected at the first hour, when young people of all elementary and high school grades meet for the opening session of their departments. Junior high and high school pupils are being reorganized as a separate youth department and will meet in the library room.

In charge of the educational work is E. D. Howe, superintendent.

At 11 o'clock Rev. Fred Morrow will conduct worship, with the assistance in music of the new director, Margaret Popovich, and the organist, Virginia Baker. His sermon topic is "We learn by Doing." Child care is provided during the church service.

HIGHWAY KILLER

Excessive speed on the highway is a major cause of traffic fatalities, says the California State Automobile Association.

Breakfast Club Honors Wm. Motts

The Lake Merritt Breakfast Club honored Mr. and Mrs. William Penn Mott, Jr. with a buffet supper at Lake Merritt Hotel following the preview of the Children's Fairyland last Friday evening. Those attending were the 17 members of the Children's Fairyland committee and their wives, among whom were Arthur Navelet, chairman of the committee, and Homer Buckley, president of the club, and their respective wives.

The Motts did get away from the press of his Oakland parks superintending duties. They spent a week at Trinity Alps Resort and a three days' leisurely drive back by way of the Redwood Highway after viewing Shasta Dam and spending a night at Castle Crags near Dunsmuir.

Nancy and Billy, having nothing to hurry them home for, completed their two weeks vacation by camping with relatives at Burney Falls State Park and at Lake Almaror.

Orinda Women Active in YWCA
